

Director of Perioperative Services, Prisma Health Greenville Memorial Hospital

From Joan S. Cox, MBA, BSN, RN, executive director of Perioperative & GI Services, Prisma Health-Upstate

I am pleased to announce Kathy Dalton, RN, MSN, NEA-BC, has joined Prisma Health as director of Perioperative Services for Greenville Memorial Hospital. Kathy has direct oversight of perioperative nursing within Greenville Memorial Hospital to include Pre-Op, PACU, OR, Central Sterile and Perioperative Support. Her first day was Monday, Aug. 5.

Kathy has years of experience at the director level within Perioperative Services. In one of her previous roles as the director of Surgical Services in Danville, VA, she worked collaboratively with Duke University Health System to develop a successful open heart program. Kathy also served at the Perioperative Services director level within Spartanburg Regional Health System.

Please join us in welcoming Kathy to Prisma Health.
